D. For Information: Board/Staff Discussions

Member Joe Hurd shared he attended the 5th grade PBL Showcase. He observed that the students were afforded various ways to learn, from reading about battles to video chatting with the Chinese American History Museum, as well as different means to tell their stories from using multimedia, dramatic arts, to technology such as makey-makey.

Member Andrea Eyring reported that she and Francis La Poll attended the BCs & LASD quarterly meeting. She was pleased with the positive relationships between the staff members and their cooperative focus on student safety.

Member Ann Waterman Roy commended the work of Ms. Pickett and Ms. Kalita who are respectively directing and choreographing the musical, Annie. From sending videos home so that the students can listen to the music and practice their numbers, they are going above and beyond to ensure that the students are having an amazing experience. Ms. Waterman Roy shared that she is participating in the SCCOE & The American Leadership Forum Silicon Valley's School Board Academy, a program that was created to provide training on the critical role of governance within the education space to all school board members in Santa Clara County. She invited the BCS Board members to join her. Ms. Waterman Roy also shared that she has extended an invitation to LASD board member, Jessica Speiser and Bryan Johnson as well.

Member Francis La Poll also attended the 5th grade PBL Showcase on American History. He reported that he initially wondered if the content was being well covered and noted that the level of inquiry was deep and not superficial. Students were able to demonstrate their understanding of the subject matter through integrated technology as well as methodologies such as acting out the Boston massacre.

Chair John Phelps attended, along with member Clara Roa, the Los Altos Community Foundation's LEED program where they have had the opportunity to meet various school superintendents as well as community leaders. Chairman Phelps also went to the California Charter Schools Conference and attended sessions on a variety of topics including organization structures. He commended the BCS team on the fabulous job they did in their session on Growth Mindset that had over 100 participants.

III. CONSENT AGENDA ITEMS

The Superintendent/Principal recommends approval of all consent agenda items.

1. Minutes Approval of the Minutes from the March 5, 2018 Board meeting
2. Cash Register Approval of the February 2018 Check Register

A motion to approve consent agenda was made by Ann Waterman Roy, seconded by David Jaques, and passed by a vote of 9-0.

IV. INFORMATION/ACTION ITEMS

1. Climate Change Global Leaders

BCS students, Anushka Srinivasan, Keshav Shah, and Clarissa Chen shared their experiences representing BCS as the only school in the United States at the COP23 (Council of the People), COY13 (Council of the Youth), and IPCC (Intergovernmental Panel on Climate Change). They reviewed their research, action projects, and global collaborations through their participation in the BCS #Decarbonize: Decolonize club. They also shared how they utilized their experiences to inspire other educators to integrate global goals such as the UN Sustainable Development Goals into their curricula at the P21 Patterns of Innovation conference in Napa as the only student presenters at that event.

2. BCS/SCCOE STEAM Practicum 2017-2018

Samantha Garrison, 1st grade teacher, and Jen Street, RTI-PBL teacher, from Huff Elementary School provided an overview of their the changes they were able to make in their teaching and new programs they developed and implemented in their classrooms as a result of their participation in the 2018 BCS/SCCOE STEAM Practicum.

3. Global Schools Network

Founding Superintendent Hersey explained that the P21 Global Schools Network will be a community of schools committed to “inclusive and equitable quality education for all with a focus on global awareness, global competence, cultural competence, and linguistic development.”

The goals of the network will be to:

- Increase global connections between teachers, students, and school leaders.
- Increase global competence, global awareness, and linguistic competence among teachers, students, and school leaders.
- Expand recognition of successful school models.

The program launch will feature 15 carefully selected schools from 5 continents. BCS is the first school in the US to be invited to be a member of this initial cohort for “embodying P21’s vision for best practices in global education” and for its ability to “provide a model for future GSN schools.”

4. Ad Hoc Nominating Team Update

Chairperson Andrea Eyring shared that the Superintendent’s team, comprised of 3 BCS Board members (Andrea Eyring, Rich Ying, Clara Roa), 2 Foundation Board members, and 1 BBC Board member, held its first meeting to consider the board position terms that were coming to an end. These are presenting being held by Joe Hurd, John Phelps, David Jaques, and Francis La Poll. The ad hoc team members discussed potential board candidates solicited from their respective constituent groups. The team will be meeting again in a couple of weeks.

Joe Hurd reconfirmed his willingness to continue to serve on the Board; John Phelps reconfirmed his decision to step off the Board; David Jaques shared that he is giving some thought to staying on; and Francis La Poll shared that he doesn’t want a 3-year term but would be willing to continue on for current negotiations.
